

Representative Topics for Presentations

on Management

CS Consulting Group is a professional firm comprised of management strategists and specialists. Our highly rated and sought out thought leaders have the experience and skills to communicate complex ideas clearly to senior executives and directors on a number of topics relevant to the latest trends and practices in the areas of strategy, planning, and management. Each presentation is carefully tailored to the specific industry/audience in attendance. Some of the more popular and relevant management topics of great interest may include:

- < The Ugly Truth about Board-Management Relations

- < Optimizing Your LOB: Revenue Improvement Through Lines of Business Optimization

- < Playing the Mergers & Acquisitions Game — How to End Up a Winner

- < Successfully Developing Your Emerging Institution / Business

- < Achieving Superior Customer Relations Through Your Service Performance